Dated 1st February 2009

This certificate recognises the attendance and effective participation of the student named in a course run by Jan Fennell Amichien Dog Listeners Ltd.

The course specified involved both theoretical and practical instruction along with practical application of key principals in a supervised environment.

This certificate is not evidence of a formal qualification in the subject area and should not be taken as evidence of the named student's capability to perform such work in a professional capacity.

For advice on persons recommended by Jan Fennell Amichien Dog Listeners Ltd to provide a professional service, clients should contact the organisation via its web site,
